Helping yourself with Hope

When people help themselves they need to have hope in themselves. Homeless men and women need to have hope if they are dealing with extreme homelessness and poverty. If you have faith in the Lord, God will come through for you to help you prosper. My advice to homeless men, women and children is to avoid giving up hope. My advice to prison inmates and juveniles is to avoid giving up hope because suicides happen in prisons and juvenile detention centers. People that hustle people in public and private for money need to help themselves by praying to the Lord that God can be your provider with a job, permanent housing and education opportunities. People that hustle people for money in public and private need to stop getting their possessions by the flesh and Satan. When people in public and private settings are not able to help you financially, do not be wicked and negatively discriminate against people.

After you pass the brazen altar in the tabernacle, it is important to have hope and faith in the Lord as you live a new life in Christ. I want to pray for the legacy and work of Ruth Ginsberg, but I never agreed with all her views in her career and Supreme Court Justice. I never agree with her views on same-sex marriage, abortion, legalizing marijuana. Abortion need to be illegal along with same-sex marriage and legalizing marijuana. Life on earth is precious and people need to treat their bodies as a temple. It means they need to be proud to live a precious life on earth and not risk their lives to smoke drunkenness and make sure we live by God's covenant with one man and woman couples. Gays should not be discriminated in military and workforce. Women deserve more economic opportunity, but abortion should not be one of them because women are disrespecting God with the creation of human life on earth.

You need to be faithful to God and have hope in the Lord from younger to older years. You must have courage to others and people around you because God will strengthen your heart for your gift of eternal life in heaven. People need to try to help themselves and stop depending on others. Stop depending on co-dependency and taking advantage of other people in bad times such as stealing food and possessions from other people without asking for things. People can help themselves and be blessed by going to local organizations or food pantries. People take advantage of others in bad times and do not have faith, courage and hope to help them. When you have faith in the Lord and Holy Spirit, God will come through for you. You must have hope and hope in yourself because you do not want to put your hope in sinners' sin and ungodly situations to destroy you. Hope will come to you when you serve God day and night along as you are in the Holy of Holies in the tabernacle and have faith. While believing in hope for yourself you can help provide to someone else as a cheerful giver. God will provide you with hope to provide a spouse or soul mate along as you have in God.

- Do not receive nothing or any possessions from sinners
- Do not receive nothing from idols
- Do not be a hypocrite
- Do not be ashamed to have hope in God and yourselves
- Do not engage in corruption
- You must be sober as a Christians and disciples
- You must not fashion yourselves with lusts
- You must have hope in yourselves and God in times of trouble

- Believe in God will provide you with hope
- Believe in God will provide you with hope while meeting goals and accomplishments
