Landlords that care about their tenants need to work with them in bad times to avoid evictions. Landlords need to stop judging people and listening to the devil to discourage and not help tenants to prevent homelessness and overcrowded shelters in this nation. Most tenants are honest and not scammers to live for free because people witness bad times and witness unexpected things in their lives. If landlords have spirit to help their tenants and fruit of the spirit in their hearts, homelessness will decrease and will not increase in this nation. Do not let the devil ruin your life by providing a curse on you to ruin your life on earth. People need to have faith to prevent the devil putting a dangerous curse

People listen to the devil for the following:

- Judging and disrespecting people
- Not being appreciative to things for things providing to you in time of need
- Act like takers and never give to the poor
