Series: Self-Control in Holy Spirit Topic: Get the Devil Out of the Way in Daily Lives

You can move the devil out of the way after reading the bible and praising God. You can move the devil out of the way by keeping sin out of your inner circle forever. You can move the devil out of the way by meeting Christian people, not listening to hip-hop/rap music, not listening to the devil and the flesh, confessing and repent for your sins, baptism and being born again, and live a new life in Christ with obedience in Holy Spirit.

Move devil out of the way by opposing not getting abortion

Move devil out of the way by not supporting same Sex marriage and marriage equality

Move devil out of the way by not supporting legalization of marijuana

Move devil out of the way by not supporting conception

God plan is respecting Jesus as your leader by waiting to settle down with man or woman with children. Adam represents man and eve represents women on earth. All couples supposed to be man and woman with children. When you obey God plan to the fullest, you are moving the devil out of the way in your life to achieve gift of eternal life in heaven. When you pray to God for your health and well being, you are moving the devil out of the way in your life. When you praise God and rejoice him, you are moving the devil out of the way in your life. When you wait to have children when you are married, you are moving the devil out of the way in your life. When you take away baggage in your life, you are moving the devil out of the way. When you not taking in too much baggage from other people, you are moving the devil out of the way in your life. When you change your life from thug and hoodlum, you are moving the devil out of the way. When you say no to illegal drugs and drinking alcohol, you are moving the devil out of the way. When you say no to smoking, you are getting the devil out of the way. When you praise and rejoice Jesus Christ in your heart, you are moving the devil out of the way in your life. When you get judge your life based on your pride, you are letting the devil come in the way of your life. When you eliminate your pride in your life, you are getting the devil out of the way. Devil want us to do what we want to do to allow us to suffer here on earth.

- God will judge homeless people steal. Homeless people that steal from other homeless people will not go to heaven and soul is lost. Homeless people that steal are not anointed and righteous to the Lord because they are leading to hell and devil. Those people will continue to fall and not have the gift of eternal life. Homeless people that steal will be judged at the throne in heaven and not be given gift of eternal life in heaven. Homeless people that do bad and lead to the path of the devil is not going to heaven. God is looking down on wicked and sin homeless people today.
- God will judge homeless people that are wicked and sinners. God will not accept sinners and wicked into heaven. People let the devil discourage them and push them to do more sin on earth. I saw homeless people on the streets in Chicago and Detroit steal from people, I saw people on the streets trying to offer homeless person food or buy them food, but homeless people rejected it. I saw some homeless people turn down job opportunities from working Americans. Homeless shelters should be hosted as polling.locatipns in communities to encourage go to vote. Some homeless people are homeless because families do not want peo9lr living with them that steal from them in their households. Americans today do not like any family or friends stealing from them in their households, so it is the reason why young and older people and up at homeless shelters based on wrongdoing in households.