

Faith that Works: Living Out of Our Beliefs
Wisdom and Doubt: Asking and Receiving with Confidence

Source of wisdom comes from God because it's truthful and comes from above. Homeless people at homeless shelters today do not know how and get any wisdom from God. That's why I found out that at Star of Hope Mission in Houston that Pastor John Johnson talked about pain and vision. I agree with his lectures because people with mental health and live in homeless shelters rather still deal with pain and vision. People at homeless shelters do not have a vision for their life because they have no faith in God to get them there. That is why people with mental health and homeless people always hate and judgemental to people that are serious and become successful and sophisticated. When people love the world, they are gaining sinful wisdom. People are gaining sinful wisdom, listening to people in that world and leaning on their own understanding. Those are 100% facts. That is why my favorite book of the bible is the book of Galatians and Proverbs 10:6-14. The Book of Galatians talks about the training and importance of living in the fruit of the spirit and living for God with strong faith. Turn to the person next to you and say faith that works. Do not be double-minded to serve and listen to the world and pray to God for wisdom because it does not work like that. It does not work like that. We need to understand that it does not work like that. We can serve two masters. We are only supposed to be faithful and serve one God and he is at the throne in heaven. It is no Adam and Steve before Adam and Eve. LGBTQ community will continue to be a basket of sinful deplorables. Christ Jesus is our one God that is our personal savior that died for our sins and rose again on the third day. Double-mindedness is dangerous because it is walking in the path of Lucifer. Whoever is double-minded and sinful will continue to burn in hell like Lucifer did. We need to stay away from sin and the devil.

“If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking. But when you ask him, be sure that your faith is in God alone. Do not waver, for a person with divided loyalty is as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is blown and tossed by the wind. Such people should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. Their loyalty is divided between God and the world, and they are unstable in everything they do.”-James 1:5-8

- Do not let Lucifer tempt us
- Take responsibility for your choices
- Being a doer to Christ Jesus and his kingdom

“And remember, when you are being tempted, do not say, “God is tempting me.” God is never tempted to do wrong, and he never tempts anyone else. Temptation comes from our own desires, which entice us and drag us away. These desires give birth to sinful actions. And when sin is allowed to grow, it gives birth to death. So don't be misled, my dear brothers and sisters.”-James 1:13-16
