

John 10:9-16

How to avoid humility as a shepherd to God?

Heavenly Father,
Strengthen our faith in God as a mustard seed.
Guide this message that is given today to this flock
Strengthen our hearts and let our hearts grow as a mustard seed
In Jesus name, Amen.

Isaiah 66:2

James 4:10

Proverbs 29:23

When we read Isaiah 66:2, we must understand Christ Jesus is our personal savior that judges us and our hearts at the throne in heaven. Say do not let no one judge your heart. Tell the person next to you: earth is God's kingdom and belongs to God, not the devil. I said to clients at the Star of Hope Mission in Houston as a facilitator while in TLC and client in Spiritual Recovery Program, we must use our freewill in a godly and righteous way to stop making decisions by conceit and selfish ambitions. We must understand Isaiah 66:2 is part of being humble to God daily. Do not let the sinful world humiliate us and damage our salvation and faith for God. Jesus was speaking to Isaiah in Isaiah 66:2 about humility during his ministry as one of prophets in the bible that serve Jesus and God. \

I want to link James 4:10 to James 4:11 because we must perform what it is said in James 4:11 by not doing that stuff to make us unrighteous to God to anyone and anybody in the world.
