

Living Righteous on Earth Forever

Exodus 20:12

People on earth supposed to honor their mother and father on earth. People supposed to have love for their mother and father like they supposed to love the Lord. People on earth supposed to honor Family on earth because everyone on earth need to be thankful they have families. Homeless people do not have families they can go for help. It is homeless people on earth that are depressed and humiliated each year because they do not have families that will not help them. I believe ex-offenders and juveniles deserve to reunite with their families after released from prison. Parole officers refer their clients to stay at homeless shelters. Homeless people in urban cities should be happy to live by their spiritual self. Sinful nature and sin is bad for your soul on earth. Sin is the slave mind of the devil on earth.

Tell people on earth: eliminate distractions from the Lord.

God work and blessings are honorable

When I met with women in Chicago to minister and counsel them, they told me about themselves living in poverty. Women told me they are struggling financially to raise children as single parents in Poverty. Women told me that they are tired of fathers not being in the households to help raise children. Women told me that they are tired of financially supporting men in relationships. I prayed with them and gave them hugs for my sympathy for them. I gave the women I ministered my phone number and email to keep in touch. Women are current members of my church and still live in Chicago. I actually asked women at the time "Why do you think women become LGBT? The women response was that many men break their hearts. Same sex marriage is a sin and I always oppose it. I believe all couples should be a man and woman with children on earth.
