

Living in God Grace and Obedience without Bondage

You must have self-control as a disciple and Christian. When you live in bondage, you are not following Jesus to the cross and eternal life. Strong Christians and disciples say no to ungodly and righteousness on earth.

Say no to temptation

Say no to sin and the flesh

Say no to Satan and hell

Say no to thugs, hoodlums, gang members that live their lives by the flesh

Say no to people that want you to steal and kill, prosecute you on earth

Say no to people that want you to disrespect God plan and life on earth

Say no to LGBT and homosexuality

Answer yourself these questions daily:

Do you want to die from living through temptation?

Do you want to die living your life by the flesh?

Do you want to be seated and sent to hell where you will be stuck forever?

Do you want to jeopardize peace, security, love and gift of eternal life to spend time in hell after you die on earth?

Do you want to reject Jesus and live their lives in the darkness?

Do you want to trust Satan and his kingdom to live their lives in the darkness?

Do you want to earn your riches and possessions by the flesh?

Do you want to make decisions and sacrifices in the darkness?

Do you want to listen to atheism that represents sin and the darkness?

No abomination in life or marriage

If all answers are no to the questions, you want to stay away from temptation, sin and the flesh. People need to stay out of other people's lives or business. It is listening and living their lives by the flesh. God wants us to worry about our own lives, spiritual journey and destiny. Devil wants us to be in other people's business or lives. If you want to live forever, laughs and gossip about strangers represent sinners and darkness. Men need to commit to that woman. Woman need to commit to that man. Man and woman must bring happiness to each other. Man and woman should not vow to each other. When a man and woman divorce each other, they need to compromise with each other to keep custody of children to prevent kidnapping through custody.
