

Contentment vs. Complacency

Rubble and Peace in Our Communities

The Legacy Blueprint: Building a Better You
Lord Jesus Christ Community Baptist Church
Wednesday and Friday

The Forensic Definition

- Peace in the process
- The southern hub
- Complacency
- Settling in the static
- The silo
- Stagnation
- Decay
- Return of bipolar static
- Revolving door, failure and life running into a wall.
- Providing joy to the Lord to live by God vision

The Legacy Blueprint Analysis

Complacency

1. Not caring
2. Sinful
3. Lack of commitment and motivation
4. Live in a revolving door and life is running to a wall
5. Comfortable living in the rubble and static
6. Not focus on their own life
7. Hateful towards others and success
8. Lean on their own understanding
9. Live by mammon and tax collector
10. Love the world more than God

Contentment

1. Life is focus on God and career-focused
2. Focus on their life and destiny
3. Live a quiet life and mind their own business
4. Resist listening to the devil in their life
5. Let God guide them in their life and live for God with their service to others and in the community.
6. Avoid anger and bipolar disorders
7. Care about the identity
8. Strong prayer life to God
9. Make decisions by heavenly wisdom
10. Do not make decisions by earthly wisdom and idolatry

Building a Better You: The Extraction Test

1. Are you content to God?
2. Do you have life sanity?
3. Are you complacent?
4. Have you stopped your academic weight?
5. Do you live your life as a spirit of greed to the world?

Bishop Hobson Anti-Complacent Triggers

- Do not live his life with a spirit of greed
- He gives more to help the homeless because he is compassionate about helping the needy and homeless over ten years.
- Stay away from the rubble and administrative static, such as haters and envy people in shared room housing and people around me in public.
- His mother raised him to be content with hard work and responsibility on the southside of Chicago.
- He learned from his mom to live a quiet life and worry about my own destiny and life, do not worry about haters and envious people like here in Michigan.

Legacy Blueprint Self Audit

- 1. When you face a delay of your plans, is your reaction quiet or administrative static?
- 2. Do you update your career-focused portfolio for academic weight?
- 3. Are you comfortable with disrespect, low standards and bipolar static?
- 4. Do you have current important documents ready?
- 1. Quiet life means you are content to God and in goals
- 2. Trust in your blueprint and Barn
- 3. No anger and complaining
- 4. Continue to update your resume for your academic weight
- 5. Try to remain complacent from the silo.
- 6. You are a sovereign professional
- 7. Avoid being stalled by the silo saying you will get to it.
- 8. Be mission-locke and work with warp speed
- 9. Read Apostle Paul mandates

Legacy Stewardship

1. Assign every dollar in your household and business has structural integrity to renounce silos. That why voters needs to support waste, fraud and abuse in government.
2. Follow the 10-10-80 ratio in your households.
3. Create forensic plan to mute debt and eliminate friction
4. Maintain emergency fund of $1,000 or more to create a quiet resting place
5. Invest in certifications and education to create career velocity.

1. 10% foundation (Tithing)
2. 10% savings and investment
3. 80% for living expense

Scriptures

- 1 Corinthians 14:40
- 1 Timothy 6:6
- Proverbs 10:4
- Use a budget
- Chaos is the enemy of wealth
- Contentment
- Wo do not buy static to impress the silo
- Diligence
- We leave out and go to work to earn our increase