In Jesus name, Amen

I started out to move back to Baltimore to finish what I started to maintain myself here. I decided to return back to Baltimore and did not like it in North Carolina. I did not really know anybody out there. It was hard for me to meet new people. God was trying to direct my path in Baltimore, but I left by leaning on my own understanding by going to North Carolina. I started to run into failure when I arrived in Raleigh and Charlotte. If I would have stayed in Baltimore I would have been doing better economically and financially by saving my money and using the knowledge from Star of Hope Mission in Houston to build up my emergency fund. It means that I did not think and honor Proverbs 3:5 before I left Baltimore. I was back in Baltimore on December 27, 2024 based on my Greyhound bus ticket from Charlotte. I did not let God direct my path when staff name Felicia told me in her office that the program was not a fit for me and she was going to refer me to a shelter. I do have a family that lives in North Carolina, but I was not comfortable living with her because she lives a gay lifestyle and does not believe in the LGBTQ community and homosexuality. The program Passioncarre was only a program for people needing treatment with substance abuse issues. So I believe I may just run to North Carolina for two weeks.

“So you will find favor and good success in the sight of God and man. Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge, and he will make straight paths. Be not wise in your own eyes, fear the Lord, and turn away from evil. It will heal your flesh and refresh your bones. Honor the lord with your wealth and with the firstfruits of your produce; then your bones will be filled and plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine.”-Proverbs 3:4-10

“She will place a graceful garland; she will bestow on you a beautiful crown. Hear my son, and accept my words, that the years of my life may be many.”-Proverbs 4:9-10

We need to let the spirit help us with our weaknesses because it is not good to let the world help us help us with our weaknesses. Our weaknesses do not need to be solved by the sinful world today that can lead us to sin, temptation, darkness and idolatry. We do not want to have sinners, drug dealers, hoodlums, thuggish people handling our weaknesses. It can lead to consequences and us down the path of unrighteousness. We need to let God handle and guide us through our tribulations and our weaknesses. Turn to the person next to you and say search your heart. When you read Romans 8:26, we need to pray to God for anything including our weaknesses to let God guide us. Turn to the person next to you and say let God be your problem solver. We can pray for our personal finances, well-being, family, friends, coworkers, your job, household and economic hardship, tribulations with homelessness and poverty. We can pray for the wicked and people dealing with mental health and anger issues, pre existing conditions, and medical problems. When we pray to God, we need to be sincere.

Paul is speaking in the scripture about the Holy Spirit helps you with your weaknesses and how to pray to God in your life during your prayer life to God in order to grow your heart as a mustard seed to heaven. “Likewise the spirit helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what to pray for us we ought, but the spirit himself intercedes for us groanings too for wants”-Romans 8:26

As a man of God and Bishop, I let God deal with my weaknesses when I am dealing with tribulations daily. I have problems with some weaknesses and tribulations, such as making decisions too fast and quickly to avoid economic consequences. I am still working on that now and that's why something is happening to other christians and disciples with the spiritual breakthrough. God spoke to me in my heart telling me I need to make my move to Baltimore on December 26 departure date from Charlotte to serve God, help the homeless and low-income communities use my spiritual gifts in shepherding, wisdom, exhortation, teaching, knowledge and prophecy.

“Do not love the world, the world or things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the father is not in him. For all of that sin in the world desires the desires of the flesh and desires of the eyes and pride of life—is not from the father but is from the world.”-1 John 2:15-17

We need to take 1 John 2:15-17 as an example and honor the scripture about why we do not need to love the world and let the devil help us with our weaknesses and tribulations. If you love the world to deal with your weaknesses, God is not in you and still letting pride takeover. Voters in this nation need to stop voting by pride by listening to people like Kamala Harris and the Democrats on abortion and reproductive rights. Abortion is lust and sin in the bible. LGBTQ and homosexuality is a sin and abomination from God in the bible. That's why I have been working tirelessly day after day to convert people from their sins to overcome being LGBTQ and homosexuals before North Carolina. No marriage equality and same-sex marriage do not need to be an issue in this nation.

“And so, dear brothers and sisters, I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him. Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.”-Romans 12:1-2

I should have renewed my mind to God before I left Baltimore to go to North Carolina. Paul was speaking on how we need to make sacrifices to God to continue to be obedient to God and the Holy Spirit. Paul was explaining we need to have mercies on to God in our life as a living sacrifice.

“I don't mean to say that I have already achieved these things or that I have already reached perfection. But I press on to possess that perfection for which Christ Jesus first possessed me. No, dear brothers and sisters, I have not achieved it, [a] but I focus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us.”-Philippians 3:12-14

Instead of leaving Baltimore to North Carolina, I should have pressed on in Baltimore to let God guide me to my successes with this congregation while keeping other locations in Texas and Michigan. It is something that Pastor John Johnson, Program Director and Mr. Gray told me to do at Star of Hope Mission in Houston while I was in the spiritual Recovery Program. I could have just God continue to open doors for me to my successes and not make decisions leaning on my own understanding to go to North Carolina. My decision is my own fault for not letting God guide me in my decision at the time. I apologize and repent to God for that mistake and not letting the kingdom guide me and my decision.

“Can two people walk together without agreeing on the direction?”-Amos 3:3

Amos was speaking to God about unity and agreeing with one another in the land of Egypt. It is important as Christians and disciples to have unity and serve as one community but we do not live in that society where we can live under one accord and unity. We live in a divided society where you have the wicked living in bondage that want to encourage us to live wicked ways and live in sin. We live in a divided society where people care about living under temptation to conform to the world. We live in a divided society where we see people with weak contentment that love the world more than God by listening to idolatry in the world. We must pray for people that do not agree with us that are wicked. We need to pray for people that are wicked, not distance and ignore them. We need to pray for the wicked to see God as the rock of our salvation and personal savior. We need to pray for the wicked to eliminate and overcome their sins. We do not need to have the devil handle our weaknesses and tribulations because it can lead to a path of unrighteousness and devil. We do not need to listen to people that are trying to promote the devil works, such as abortion, same-sex marriage, homosexuality, living by mammon and tax collector, stealing, killing, committing adultery, and bear false witness against others thinking they know it all about people. The Godly way to live a righteous life is to promote and serve Godly works with workmanship, honor life and life in the womb, no marriage equality by all couples because all couples need to be man and woman with children, rely and accept gifts from God. We need to prevent the devil from making us weak and causing us to be conformed to the world with sin and idolatry.

“But the LORD came down to look at the city and the tower the people were building. Look!” he said. “The people are united, and they all speak the same language. After this, nothing they set out to do will be impossible for them!”-Genesis 11:5-6
