We need to stop intimidation in this country to end racial violence and doing ugly things to divide us. We need to be united and mortal as a nation. We need to stop this Jim Crow violence, white nationalism and supremacy. We must have faith in God and Holy Spirit daily to believe the lord did not provide us with a spirit of fear while on earth. As a christian and disciples, we must be sober and vigilant to everyone and people on earth. Klu Klux Klan and white nationalism is not sober and vigilant to people. White nationalists and KKK provide more intimidation by providing death and threats towards humanity. All of us must be truthful and peaceful in our hearts, not being irrational. We must be united as a true world and nation. God will teach us a new way of life. That's why we need to live by God's plan. We can live our lives morally and is the fruit of the spirit. We can live our lives without emotion, mentality and sin. We need to stop believing in people and believe in God and Holy Spirit forever. It is good to renew our thinking for God and the Holy Spirit. We must think how God thinks when we make daily decisions. We must eliminate arrogance, pride and selfishness from our daily lives forever. God created us with a sound mind.

No living your life in bondage
No being ashamed to serve and have faith in God
Do not fail and discriminate against God and the Holy Spirit.

Believe God is our healer by confessing and admitting our faults to each other. We must be take responsibility for our own decisions we make on a daily basis including wrongdoing. We must prove to God that we can take responsibility to admit and confess our faults. After we confess our faults to God, we must not sin again as we promise to God. People in the KKK and confederacy will be punished by God and Holy Spirit for their violence, brutality, intimidation, church and cross burnings in the United States of America and abroad. We must be strong as a people that can agree and disagree with each other peacefully as a nation. We must be afraid and be truthful to each other as a nation. When you admit your wrongdoings and intimidation to violence to God, he will forgive you and cleanse your hearts forever. We must remain intelligent and spiritual people without intimidation, temptation and flesh while making daily decisions. The truth is African Americans under 30 are intimidated by successful and sophisticated people because they are hate that people like me and other successful people took challenges to succeed by staying in school and study hard, going all the way in college to obtain good career and job, have a family with children. I am talking about doing it the right way by God's plan. People that run their lives by God plan will have good intentions throughout life, such as no sex or children before marriage, no children out of whit-lock, no fornication and commit adultery. Republicans and fox news are 100% loyal to trump because they are intimidated by him.

Some African Americans are intimidated towards people that see successful people dressed up with good appearance. The truth is why African Americans youth and under 30 gossip about successful and sophisticated people because they are intimidated by those people. White police officers provides intimidation towards African Americans and Latinos with incarceration and brutality. Marriages and Relationships deal with intimidation with depression. Homeless people provides intimidation as well because they act depressed, insecure, haters and envy. that why congregation do not have operations here in Philadelphia because too many people intimidated by my success and sophistication. Security guards at public libraries and public libraries are intimidated by my success. That is 100% fact.

Immerse yourself to the bible and holy spirit
Confess and declare what the bible says about you
Refuse the counsel of the world
Accept the counsel and encouragement of Godly friends
