

John 10:9-16

A Change in Venue

Heavenly Father,

Thank you for our truthfulness and Godly heart.

Thank you for keeping us on the path of righteousness to grow our hearts as a mustard seed to heaven.

Thank you for keeping our hearts and minds out of hell and sin.

Thank you for giving us another day, giving us food and the need to live another day.

Strengthen our wisdom and knowledge to heaven so our hearts can continue to grow as a mustard seed to heaven.

Guide and protect our disciples in our inner circle daily while they continue to serve God and grow their hearts as a mustard seed

Thank you for opportunity to grow this flock and our own flock daily

Guide our hearts so our hearts can grow as a mustard seed to a tree of life in heaven.

Thank you for this message today.

I ask you to reach out and touch people to let people use this message in their life going forward.

Unite families and friends that are distant, so we can reunite as Christian and disciples when something unexpectedly happen on earth

Help more people receive people to grow our relationship to God and Holy Spirit to provide improvement in our inner circle forever.

Guide and help us grow as a mustard seed like a tree of life for God forever.

In Jesus name, Amen.

2 Corinthians 5:1-10

Job 4:19

Mark 15:53

Romans 8:23, 2:16, 14:10, 6:6-11

2 Corinthians 3:1, 1:14, 11:1-16, 12:11

As Christians and disciples on earth, we must have no worries about the future and future of earth because I know if something happens to earth, God has a home for us in heaven. We have a home with eternal life in heaven. I heard situations from friends and experts in the past that earth could end like Armageddon. It will be time that earth will be destroyed and citizens on earth will be gone. We live in a life-threatening situation on earth because the equator and earth are getting hotter by getting closer to the sun. sea-levels are rising. Climates are shifting in many places on earth, too many hurricanes and tornadoes destroying homes. People dying during disastrous weather. During times like these, we need to have faith in God and seek God in our life. When you have God in your life and something happens on earth, we need to know it is a home for us in heaven with the gift of eternal life.

When we read 2 Corinthians 5:2, I am one of those people that want to be clothed in heaven by God because I do not have to worry about weaknesses with mammon on earth by the time I have money and go shopping. When I shop, I like to shop like rich people with fancy possessions and suits to dress like other pastors and religious leaders. I am using what I learned at Star of Hope Mission in Houston on letting God guide me on my wants and needs. I learned this in Financial Management class while I was level 4-5 in the Spiritual Recovery Program at Star of Hope Mission in Houston. I believe if I was in heaven today I believe I will be better off clothed by God. I do not have to worry about sin. Idolatry, temptation, enemies and evil in the world. I will be happy to be in heaven to only live in peace, harmony and pursuit of happiness. That's why I am one of the people on earth that are followers of Jesus hoping I will leave earth so that I end up in a place better than this. I strongly believe as Christians and disciples that live 100% for God that we need to be strong believers in 2 Corinthians 5:3 and apply it to our life going forward to hold on to our gift of eternal life in heaven. It is what I have been saying all at long that God is our source and provider. When we read 2 Corinthians 5:4, we must understand that God will prepare us for anything when humanity and earth is in danger. In 2 Corinthians 5:4, the only way God clothed and continues to clot up from the throne in heaven, we must have a strong heart for God and our hearts have been growing as a mustard seed for heaven. We must have strong faith in God when the world unexpectedly ends. Whoever does not live for God has not prepared those people for anything that happens. People live their life with the fruit of the spirit prepared for anything on earth and God got you. Turn and say to the person next you: God got you covered. God does not get you if you continue to live in sin and wickedness. Our body is not home. Heaven is our home. Whoever walks by faith in their Christian journey God has got you covered and prepared for anything.

Ways to turn your life over to God and let him change your venue:

1. Rejoice in the Lord.
2. Repentance
3. Let God lead you

As Christians and disciples, we must be obedient to God in order to be affectionate to people. God's kingdom will not accept people that have continued living in sin and evil, not obedient to God and not affectionate to one another. That is 100% fact. It is how we received each other on earth as friends to be christian and disciples to Jesus. That's what I said about Matthew 10:40-41 that my mother and step-father have not accepted me as a christian, disciple, man of God and Bishop of Lord Jesus Christ Community Baptist Church. Read 2 Corinthians 5:15 out loud somebody. Do not be ashamed to be truthful in your life because God worships and likes truthful servants and serving his kingdom to heaven. Say truthfulness is the path of righteousness through the gates of heaven. Our care must be at the sight of God's Holy Spirit.

1. In what ways are you revealing yourself to God and others where you are right now?
2. How might you serve God today?

When you change your venue on earth to heaven, you must have vision. I mean have a vision to put God in control of your life and not the world to control your life to sin and idolatry. Whatever we want to do in our life, we must have a vision for God to let Christ Jesus lead us there. We do not want to have a vision to let the world lead us to our vision because your vision can lead you to sin and path of unrighteousness. As a shepherd to God, we must have a vision to seek God and let Christ Jesus guide us to where we are going in life. People are homeless for so long in this nation for decades and never had permanent housing because they do not want to change their venue to heaven. Homeless men and women at homeless shelters for ten years need to change their venue to heaven to gain vision in their life. People that do have vision in their life are serving God for a venue to heaven. They need to thank God for their vision and change their venue for heaven. Turn to the person next to you and say thank you for changing my venue to heaven. We need to change our venue and vision for God for preparations for anything that happens in your life and life on earth that affects earth and human life. When we go out to wild parties and clubs to find a soulmate and friends, it is time to change your venue to God. When you have been getting your possessions and needs from the world, it is time to change your venue to God. When you have been depending on the world as your source, it is time to change your venue to God. When you are sick at home during the week including Sunday, it is time to change your venue to God to find a church home to attend bible study and Sunday services. When you are getting tired of your life feeling like it is running into a wall, it is time to change your venue to God. When you catch yourself making friends with sinners and wickedness friends, it is time to change your venue to God and find friends at spiritual and fellowship gatherings. When you are tired of being an underachiever and not getting things good out of life, it is time to change your venue to God to avoid mental health and depression. When you are tired of not being part of your children's life as a parent, it is time to change your venue to God to ask God to guide you to start being part of your children and families to avoid family separations and living in different residences or places of living in the United States of America. When you see yourself tired of being homeless or dealing with homelessness, it is time to change your venue to God by inviting family back into your life. When you are tired of being a taker conformed to the world, it is time to change your venue to God to ask God you during your tribulations. When you see your current goals and accomplishments not working for you in your life to succeed, it is time to change your venue to God. I am so blessed to God's kingdom even during tribulations because I changed my venue to heaven in 2011. In 2 Corinthians 5:1-10, Paul were speaking to the church of believers in Corinth when he served for Jesus to explain to the church of Corinth the need for change in venue to heaven and honor God that died for our sins and rose again, trust God as rock of our salvation, have a sound mind for God as rock of our salvation, well-known with our minds and hearts, taking risks to serve God as rock of your salvation, being absent from the body and world, walking the Christian walk towards God. Also, I have been using my knowledge from Star of Hope Mission in Houston in Spiritual Recovery Program and TLC on my monthly budget like I did and had to submit each month to staff. I used what I learned from Financial Management class at level 4-5 at Star of Hope Mission in Houston in the Spiritual Recovery Program on financial management and set up an emergency fund. The Subcommittee for Church Ethics gets my signed monthly budgets each month for the next month. I do not do budgets for the same month. I do my budgets for the next month because it is how I learned to do it at Star of Hope Mission in Houston in Spiritual Recovery Program and TLC after October 2023 commencement. The Subcommittee on Church Ethics prepares a final report to the church members and public at the end of the year on income and personal finances before tax season.

Mark 14:58 talks about the resurrection of Jesus when he rose after he was crucified and hung on the cross, then he died on the cross for our sins. The scripture says he rose on the third day and built a temple without his hands. Read and familiarize yourself with Romans 14:10, Romans 12:11, Romans 13:1, Romans 12:29. When I read 2 Corinthians 1:16, I think about some friends I grew up with who act like fools and accept them as fools and pray for them over and over again to eliminate their foolishness. It is like Jesus changed his venue when he sacrificed himself to die for our sins during the resurrection.
