

Series: Rapture

Topic: Being a Strong Educator to the Lord

Religious studies curriculum need to be implemented in schools across the country to restore religious freedom and religious freedom. It needs to be more freedom of religion. Churches do not need to be silent anymore by governments and politicians as well as institutions. Children and youth need to learn the bible, baptism, discipleship, stewardship and tabernacle to live obedient to God and Jesus to live the gift of eternal life. Children and youth need start out young stop managing their lives by the flesh. Religious studies curriculum in schools across the country need to be a graduation requirement.

Exodus 4:15

John 13:13

Deuteronomy 4:36

Psalms 25:12, 32:8, 71:17, 94:10

Isaiah 2:3, 48:17, 54:13

Jeremiah 32:33

Micah 4:2

You can teach people about God about want to preach to people on earth. Whatever you preach about God and Holy Spirit, Jesus will teach you how to live life with obedience forever. Your job as a disciple is to instruct ungodly people to know the Lord, learn and understand the bible and worship the Lord. Your job as a disciple is to guide people on earth to worship the Lord forever. Jesus teaches us to profit on earth to eternal life in heaven.

1. Teach people to worship the Lord
2. Teach people about the gift of eternal life.
3. Teach people on earth to walk in the path of righteousness with gladness in the Holy Place in the tabernacle.
4. Teach children and youth to worship and live with peace with the Lord
5. Teach people to understand the bible.
6. Teach people to live obedient to the Lord
7. Teach people on earth to fear the Lord and be righteous
8. Teach people the Lord is your healer, deliverer, provider and protector