

Ways to Appreciate and Support Life

Young girls and boys need to meet someone they want to spend rest of their life with on earth in a relationship. I mean go on dates for a while to get to know each other to determine if the person is the right soul mate for you. This option will prevent rape, incest and unexpected pregnancies by women. This option will prevent abortions in the United States of America. Young girls and boys need to stop acting like hoodlums and hood rats by having sex with different people within opposite sex. Women need to have more common sense on what type of men they see themselves within a relationship. Young girls need to stop falling for young boys with no self-esteem. Young girls and boys need to control their hormones. When young girls have sex with men, they have to ask themselves about getting pregnant. If a young girl do not want to get pregnant, they need to consider contraception or wait until they find Mr. Right. Young African American boys today what not properly trained in the households by way they act in public or on the streets. When young girls get pregnant by young boys, it starts conflicts with families and homelessness. When young boys approach females, they have problems with their hormones. Abortions stagnate the black communities because you find abortion clinics in minority communities. It is more black women getting abortions because rape or incest accusations. Abortion among black women is 36% under age 30 because black women act like hoodrats and fall for any man. Black women disrespect God's plan by having sex before marriage. Michigan had more abortions from black women. 56.3 million babies die from abortions worldwide. Babies are aborted every 1.8 seconds. Most women that get abortions are Protestant and Catholic.

Young women need to ask themselves the following questions before having sex and getting Pregnant:

1. Do you love the boy or girl enough to spend eternity with them?
2. Do you love a boy or girl to stay committed to them for eternity?
3. Do you have financial stability with yourself and family to raise the baby?
4. Do you have a place to live to have housing to raise a baby?
5. Do young boys have high self-esteem or responsibility to help raise the babies?
6. Will you commit to a man or woman to marry?

If above questions are no, you need to really think do you want to have sex with the man or woman to unexpected pregnancies and abortions.

37% Caucasian women have abortions

37% Black women have abortions

19% Hispanic women have abortions

Mandatory high school and elementary school counseling to prepare young boys and girls for life and challenges. When I mean life counseling, it can help young boys and girls with career counseling and guidance, goal setting, parenting. Counseling can assists young boys and girls with the following:

What are your career goals?

How do you see yourself in five to ten years from now?

Tell young girls and boys about life and responsibility in everyday life as an adult including preparing young boys and girls that want to become parents, living on their own with responsibility and independence, money management, career goals and advancement, job search opportunities as teenagers, economic opportunities. I meet with people for spiritual and biblical counseling during one-on-one interviews in Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and New York City area. Women need to be allowed to adopt newborn babies to foster homes for families to have opportunities to adopt newborn babies. Newborn babies can be raised in a loving and Christian home.

Letters were sent on truthful information about Sunday Breakfast Rescue Mission investigation to Capitol Hill. Letters were sent to Capitol Hill to assist special counsel appointed by Bylaws and Rules Committee members on Sunday Breakfast Rescue Mission ongoing investigation here in Philadelphia. It was two page letter sent to Senate Appropriations committee to reconsider my Africa Fair Trade Agreement proposal from 2011 rejected by Obama-Biden during Obama administration. I agree with Democratic party based on today's economy. Economy may be growing but people are still hurting financially. People move in shared room housing because people do not have the money for a security deposit for an apartment. You hear people living with people to help them balance household finances sharing one, two or three bedroom apartments or houses. Some people do not want or see themselves living in homeless shelters.
