

Church News

February 2019

---

Homelessness Ministry on Homeless People Daily Well-Being

Homeless men and women at homeless shelters deal with unethical staff and corrupt chaplain. Chaplain and religious leaders at homeless shelters in the United States of America are corrupt and not caring people. Chaplain at homeless shelters preaches the world to homeless men and women during worship times and ban homeless people from shelters. Chaplain and staff at homeless shelters treat homeless men and women with mental health like criminals. Homeless shelters do not treat mental health as a health issue because they treat mental health as a criminal issue. In February 2018, staff at Detroit Rescue Mission Ministries-Oasis brutality attacked a homeless man with mental health. Homeless shelters staff should be providing homeless men and women with mental health with guidance and support, not violence. Homeless shelters staff like to change rules on homeless men and women at the last minute. Homeless people at some shelters complain about eating too much oatmeal, grits and cream of wheat. Homeless people in Chicago and Detroit says they do not get enough to eat at homeless shelters daily. Homeless men and women in Detroit and Chicago complain homeless shelters do not have enough supplies for homeless people, such as personal care and household items. Homeless shelters go through their donations of supplies for homeless people very quickly daily.

Congregation provides good support for Pacific Garden Mission because organization helps homeless people spiritually and gives them second chance to get back on their feet. Bishop Hobson talked to African-American individual in Chicago this month explaining he was living in poverty.

Congregation supports the organization New Day Program, New Life Program, Mother and Children Ministry and Transient Resident Program. African-American male Bishop Hobson talked to this month says he was thinking about going back to Pacific Garden Mission because he has no job or income. He told Bishop Hobson about he lives in poverty daily basis with no job or income. Homeless men and women are still waiting for permanent housing and hear from Chicago Housing Authority for Section 8 vouchers. Homeless men and women in Chicago do not like Rahm Emanuel blocking approval of 400,000 housing vouchers for Chicago homeless and residents. When Bishop Hobson comes to Chicago once a year, he sees new homeless people on trains, stations and sleeping on the streets. Some homeless people Bishop Hobson talked to in Chicago blame slow economy on corrupt politicians, high taxes and too much government regulations.

Congregation Action Plans for Illinois

Bishop Hobson sent a balance budget to Illinois General Assembly that were rejected by Lashawn Ford, Marcus Evans, Mary Flowers, Christian Mitchell, Kwame Roul in Illinois House of Representatives. Same state representatives opposed his plan to make it easier to start a business in Illinois. People can blame the state decrease in population on those state representatives today.