Good Expectations to God and Holy Spirit

We need to have hope in ourselves and what we want to accomplish in our lives. When we stay positive, good things will happen in our lives. When you stay positive in our lives in what we do, good things will happen in our lives. If you want to enter career and profession, we need to have hope and stay positive in our lives in good and bad times. Some people on earth never as accepted Jesus as our Lord and gave our lives to God that died for our sins. We need to be more like Christ in our lives to obedient, humble, discipleship, stewardship and worship. We must be righteous Christians and disciples expect good expectations in our lives on earth.

We must honor the Lord everyday by not being slaves to the devil and sinful world. We must not hurt and provide sin while we try to gain good expectations of God and the Holy Spirit. Gentle Words bring good and healthy life. Kind words are good for the soul as a Christian and disciple. You want to keep sin and evil out of your life and heart because it hurts your soul for God and Holy Spirit. You want to keep negativity and evil out of your heart and soul because it hurts your soul for God and Holy Spirit. You want to anger and mental health out of your life and health because it hurts your soul for God and the Holy Spirit. Bad and deceitful language will hurt your soul for God and Holy Spirit. Your backbone to faith in God is expectation.
