

Series: Living Under God Covenant with Gladness
Do Not Let Enemies Go After Our Children Heart

Heavenly Father,
Thank you for your dying for our sins
Thank you to us that are keeping evil out of our lives and can get out of the way.
Guide us and continue to grow our hearts as a mustard seed to heaven.
Guide us to continue to live by your law and wisdom forever
Guide us and keep us away from idolatry and temptation.
Help improve our personal finances and understand our paychecks and money is not a God gift for us.
In Jesus name, Amen

I said previously that we need to be part of our four children's lives to make sure they grow up spiritual and righteous on the path of righteousness. It is good our children grow up righteous to God so they can have their hearts grow like a mustard seed to heaven. Only way to do that is reading and understanding the bible daily.

“Take no part in the worthless deeds of evil and darkness; instead, expose them.”-Ephesians 5:11

Since I was saved and born again on September 4, 2011; I do not take part in worthless deeds in my life. If I catch myself unexpectedly doing any worthless deeds, I immediately repent and confess my sins to the Lord, so my sins can be forgiven and my heart can continue to grow as a mustard seed. I said in the last sermon that I exposed a former friend in Chicago named Nikao Parque on his evil and wickedness towards other people thinking he knows everything about people, bear false witness against other people, and act sinful and LGBT/homosexual. You must take the lead from me and try not to take part in any evil in your life because you want to try as hard as you can to keep evil and the devil out of the way.

About that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven? Jesus called a little child to him and put the child among them. Then he said, I tell you the truth, unless you turn from your sins and become like little children, you will never get into the Kingdom of Heaven. So anyone who becomes as humble as this little child is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. And anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf is welcoming me. But if you cause one of these little ones who trusts in me to fall into sin, it would be better for you to have a large millstone tied around your neck and be drowned in the depths of the sea. What sorrow awaits the world, because it tempts people to sin. Temptations are inevitable, but what sorrow awaits the person who does the tempting. So if your hand or foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It’s better to enter eternal life with only one hand or one foot than to be thrown into eternal fire with both of your hands and feet. And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It’s better to enter eternal life with only one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell. Beware that you don’t look down on any of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels are always in the presence of my heavenly Father. If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them wanders away, what will he do? Won’t he leave the ninety-nine others on the hills and go out to search for the one that is lost? And if he finds it, I tell you the truth, he will rejoice over it more than over the ninety-nine that didn’t wander away! In the same way, it is not my heavenly Father’s will that even one of these little ones should perish. If another believer sins against you, go privately and point out the offense. If the other person listens and confesses it, you have won that person back. But if you are unsuccessful, take one or two others with you and go back again, so that everything you say may be confirmed by two or three witnesses. If the person still refuses to listen, take your case to the church. Then if he or she won't accept the church's decision, treat that person as a pagan or a corrupt tax collector. I tell you the truth, whatever you forbid on earth will be forbidden in heaven, and whatever you permit on earth will be permitted in heaven. I also tell you this: If two of you agree here on earth concerning anything you ask, my Father in heaven will do it for you. For where two or three gather together as my followers, I am there among them. Then Peter came to him and asked, Lord, how often should I forgive someone who sins against me? Seven times? No, not seven times," Jesus replied, "but seventy times seven! Therefore, the Kingdom of Heaven can be compared to a king who decided to bring his accounts up to date with servants who had borrowed money from him. In the process, one of his debtors was brought in who owed him millions of dollars. He couldn't pay, so his master ordered that he be sold—along with his wife, his children, and everything he owned—to pay the debt. But the man fell down before his master and begged him, 'Please, be patient with me, and I will pay it all.' Then his master was filled with pity for him, and he released him and forgave his debt. But when the man left the king, he went to a fellow servant who owed him a few thousand dollars.[1] He grabbed him by the throat and demanded instant payment. His fellow servant fell down before him and begged for a little more time. 'Be patient with me, and I will pay it,' he pleaded. 30 But his creditor wouldn't wait. He had the man arrested and put in prison until the debt could be paid in full. When some of the other servants saw this, they were very upset. They went to the king and told him everything that had happened. Then the king called in the man he had forgiven and said, 'You evil servant! I forgave you that tremendous debt because you pleaded with me. Shouldn't you have mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had mercy on you?' Then the angry king sent the man to prison to be tortured until he had paid his entire debt. That's what my heavenly Father will do to you if you refuse to forgive your brothers and sisters from your heart.' -Matthew 18

1. Be truthful by guiding our children to turn from their sins and wickedness.
2. Grow your heart as a mustard seed to heaven.
3. Be humbled to God forever.
4. Let Jesus come into your life and welcome Jesus in your life.
5. Do not trust sin and trust God in their life.
6. Do not believe in lust and abomination from God and the Holy Spirit.

"Even those closest to you—your parents, brothers, relatives, and friends—will betray you. They will even kill some of you. And everyone will hate you because you are my followers. But not a hair of your head will perish! -Luke 21:16-18

These parents need to stop betraying their children because you hear too many parents on the news shooting and killing their children in households. Then blame the shooting of the children on the other person. That is unacceptable and needs to come to an end for families and households. Parents need to love their children for eternity until they die on earth. Parents do not need to try to end their children's life because of their mental health and anger management problems. We need righteous parents in this country that will follow good examples for their children to be spiritual and follow Christ Jesus in their life.

"Dear friends, never take revenge. Leave that to the righteous anger of God. For the Scriptures say, I will take revenge; I will pay them back, says the LORD." -Romans 12:19

We do not need to take revenge against family and friends while on earth, we must leave our anger for other people with God. God will deal with people and things that hurt us in our life.-

“Children who mistreat their father or chase away their mother are an embarrassment and a public disgrace.”-Proverbs 19:26

Our children need to stop disobeying their parents in the household and let parents teach their children right from wrong. There is no need to threaten parents with DCFS. Children and parents need to know how to live in peace and get along with each other to stop arguing with each other. Parents need to stop kicking children out of the house at any age including adults. We must honor our parents like it says in the bible and God law to get to heaven.

“But those who won’t care for their relatives, especially those in their own household, have denied the true faith. Such people are worse than unbelievers.-1 Timothy 5:8

We need to care for our relatives like we care for God in their life. It is bad scripturally not to care for our relatives. It is like a sin to hate family and friends on earth. We must love our family and relatives like we love God in your life. We need believers of Christ Jesus in our households because there is too much sin and temptation in our households. There is too much idolatry in our households. We need couples of man and woman that are Godly in relationships.

Giving Time:

“Give freely and become more wealthy; be stingy and lose everything. The generous will prosper; those who refresh others will themselves will be refreshed.”-Proverbs 11:24-25.

When I live by the Scripture daily and all the cheerful giving that I did in communities in cities where I lived, I have donated my own personal money to the poor as SSI income has been my only income. God always comes through for me to bless me after I give to the poor and homeless in Chicago, Dubuque, Houston, Louisville, Detroit, Flint, Cleveland and Atlanta. God has not really blessed me that much in Atlanta. It seems like bad economic situations always happen to me in Atlanta like the devil attacks me too much in Atlanta. When I was living in Chicago, God always blessed me daily after I was highly motivated to help the poor and homeless in the Chicago Southside and Westside communities. I may not be wealthy in having lots of money, but I am wealthy in the spirit of God. When I was living in and out of homelessness since 2011, it seems like I always got blessings from God after I give in church and help the poor. I know I prosper spiritually after I give and help the poor. Before I was born again, God did not help me at all in my life because I cared mostly for myself years ago. I really never had to live off the government for nothing in my life except for SNAP, Medicaid and SSI. I believe God will truly bless me when I move back to Detroit because I will not be living SSI income any more and will start paying rent like other apartment renters and homeowners. I will not have to live on SNAP either because I can buy groceries like other Americans and go to food pantries for food for the household. When I am back in Detroit, I will do more personally to help the poor and homeless financially and economically while living in nice permanent housing that God has blessed me with that is affordable in a nice neighborhood and community. God has blessed me when my family was not able to be in my life and let me live and out of homelessness since 2011. I am grateful for the little help that I was able to get by. As a man of God and

Bishop of the congregation, I still pray for my family because my family members are still sinful and live in sin and idolatry. I am still for my family because my family members still live in bondage. I pray for my family in hope for everyone to come together and stop hating each other with negative gossip. I pray for my family to become more Godly and live obedient to God before they unexpectedly leave this earth.

I am refreshed with a pure and good heart when I give back to the community, pay tithes and offerings in church and help the poor out of my personal income. I am asking you to follow my example to become a cheerful giver to the Lord and see the results you will receive from your strong faith and obedience to God in your life going forward. I ask you to support our ministries by donating either $1, $10, $25, $50, $100, $250, $500, $1000. You can donate your tithe and offering to the link below. Wherever you are and looking to make an offering and looking for a church home. You can contact me at my email address: bishopnicolas.hobson@gmail.com, email Membership Development Ministry and staff will send you a link to the new members application: membership@religious.com. When I was living in Chicago, I gave homeless men and women money for food daily to avoid those homeless men and women dealing with food insecurity. I gave homeless men and women on CTA trains leftover food. When I lived in Detroit for a long time, I provided food and money to the homeless out of my own personal money. When I lived in Louisville for a short period of time, I gave the homeless and poor $50 of my own personal money to help them out economically and financially. In Cleveland, I donated over $60 to the homeless on the streets to help them living in poverty and Homelessness. I gave so much money to churches for tithes and offerings over the years to continue my strong cheerful giving to the Lord. Membership Development Ministry staff will forward the application to people looking for a church home in Southeast Michigan, Flint, Chicago, Houston. When I am back in Detroit long term, I will use what I learned in TLC after October 2023 commencement to budget my personal money on caring for the homeless on the streets of Detroit. I will budget. Membership@religious.com is the actual email for the Membership Development Ministry and staff have been complaining to me about residents from overseas acting like they are slow thinking it is me that is emailing me. That is the actual email from Membership Development Ministry that was setup by staff for ministry and church operations purposes. The church still has open membership to individuals looking for a church home anywhere. After individuals fill out a new members application, they are allowed to submit to the email address so it can be processed by Membership Development Ministry staff.
