Protecting Our Strong Belief in God and Holy Spirit

We need to protect our strong belief in God by not getting soul mates and relationships that lead you to drunkenness and sin in your life. You need to protect our belief in God by have goals for themselves to succeed for the relationship as a Christian and disciple. We must be honest with ourselves and not be in relationships that will lead to sin, negativity and drunkenness, abuse and harassment. You need to let God guide you and let him pick your soul mate. Jesus will help judge the right soul mate for you in your heart by letting you know if the person is right for you. If he or she is a gang member, the person could not be the right person for you to be your soulmate. Having faith in God and Holy Spirit can save you from Satan and evil by believing in Jesus forever. Jesus and heaven is the true way of eternal life, not the devil and Satan. Satan and hell is evil and it is no way out of hell after you die on earth. Christians and disciples with strong beliefs believe in helping the poor as cheerful givers. Christians and disciples are not supposed to be takers. People with strong belief in God and Holy Spirit helps poor with food and money to buy something to eat. Do not let peace and love depart from your heart and soul.

Ways to protect your strong belief in the Lord

1. Have faith in the Lord and Holy Spirit
2. Belief there is one God and treat him as rock of your salvation
3. Do not let the devil control your lives with sin and temptation
4. Be righteous and do right by God and other people on earth in honest way

Relationships and Friendships

Christians and disciples earn friendships with people that are peaceful with them. Christians and disciples make friends with people that have fruit of the spirit in their hearts. It is come marriage and people in relationships that always gossip about others and bear false witness about people like they know it all. Christians and disciples do not do that and those people do not show strong belief in God and the Holy Spirit. People that have strong belief in your heart live their lives in peace and love. People with strong beliefs do not get encouraged to be slaves of the world.

We must have and gain good relationships that have strong beliefs and glory to God to protect our gifts of eternal life in heaven. As Christians and disciples, we must have good promises to God to avoid a lost soul on earth. People must make promises that they can deliver, not what They know what they will fail to do. Relationships and friendships must be 100% righteous to God and Holy Spirit as Christians and disciples.
