

Faith that Works: Living Out of Your Beliefs
The Action-Oriented Listener: Hearer to Doer

Heavenly Father,

Guide and help us become better doers to your world and not just listeners.

Guide more people in the LGBTQ community to be doers of the world and stop their sins and abomination in this nation and world.

Help us live out your world daily.

Give us strength and courage to be a doer showing love through our actions and making a real difference in the world. Guide us to see the needs around us and to respond with kindness and generosity, so our life reflects your teachings. Amen.

"Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters: You must all be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry. Human anger does not produce the righteousness God desires. So get rid of all the filth and evil in your lives, and humbly accept the word God has planted in your hearts, for it has the power to save your souls. But don't just listen to God's word. You must do what it says. Otherwise, you are only fooling yourselves. For if you listen to the word and don't obey, it is like glancing at your face in a mirror. You see yourself, walk away, and forget what you look like. But if you look carefully into the perfect law that sets you free, and if you do what it says and don't forget what you heard, then God will bless you for doing it. If you claim to be religious but don't control your tongue, you are fooling yourself, and your religion is worthless. Pure and genuine religion in the sight of God the Father means caring for orphans and widows in their distress and refusing to let the world corrupt you."-James 1:19-27

I totally agree with this topic and scripture because we must repent and confess our sins if we catch ourselves doing wrong under God's covenant and his grace. That is why as a man of God and ordained Bishop I am still 99.9% of sin in my life that I confess and repent to God to keep my heart and mind pure and obedient to God's kingdom. I agree to do it on this Godly message because I think the LGBTQ community is the basket of deplorables. I know some people say they are believers of God, but they continue to be content with their sin and abomination. I oppose the LGBTQ community and continue to call them a basket of sinful deplorables. You hear some women hear and are faithful to God and still support abortion and reproductive rights. We need to stop listening to liberals. When people are listeners and not doers to God, the word is following the path of the devil and Lucifer. When I volunteered at homeless shelters in the past, I did it because I care for helping the homeless and poor. I hate what they have to go through for their well-being on a daily basis. I hate the challenges that homeless men and women have to go through in Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Atlanta and Houston. That is why I donated $3,000+ of my own personal money to help the homeless in Iowa, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Georgia, Texas. True faith expresses itself in active obedience and compassionate service.

As a man of God and Bishop of this flock, I do look out for 52 disciples that started out at twelve disciples. I lookout for them just like they lookout for me during my tribulations, struggles and well-being. I look out for orphans to make sure they are cared for. That is why I care about poor communities in Africa where children and adults have to deal with food insecurity. Everyone says that their financial and banking sectors are fraudulent in Africa and there is no way for individuals over in Africa to get the money that person may send them from the USA or other countries. As Christians and disciples, we must be quick to listen and slow to speak, and slow to become angry. We need to try to continue to seek God's word humbly in our life daily. We must be doers of God's word, not doing it. Tell the person next to you: being doers of God's word are important to be obedient to God. We need to look after people in need, but not in a LGBTQ way. We need to look after the needy in a Godly way to care for the poor, homelessness and the vulnerable. My family members on my mother's side of the family do not do that because they rather let you fall flat on your face to let you be vulnerable. We need to listen to others, control our temper, act on what we learn from the bible, help those who are suffering, and maintain moral purity.

1. People with mental health and anger issues must honor their own struggles in their life and take responsibility for the choices they make in their life. Stop blaming others and society for their failures on why they cannot succeed.
2. People with mental health need to know the meaning of hard work to get ahead and meet their realistic goals and accomplishments.
3. Seek help through therapy, medication and coping strategies (works)
4. People with mental health and anger issues need to stop being judgemental and hating others that look like and/or they found out much of their accomplishments. People with mental health and anger issues have no right to judge people because God is the only one at the throne in heaven that can judge people's hearts on earth.
