Ending Failure in your Life

You need to end failure in your life by being honest with yourself and using common sense. You need to end failure in your life by having more contentment. You want to be sure of yourself and goals in your life on earth. You want to make sure about your career and see yourself longterm in your life. You need to speak to your guidance counselor or church about your career and life skills. You want to be careful with prosperity because you do not have to distance yourself from God and the Holy Spirit. When you become a member of a church, you want to make sure you speak to staff at your church about your goals and accomplishments.

When you stay in school, you need to continue to talk to your guidance counselor every week to discuss goals and accomplishments. When you cannot get past the brazen altar in the tabernacle, it means you still have failures, sin and evil in your life you need to repent and confess to God. When you cannot pass the brazen altar in the tabernacle, it means you need to repent and confess your sins to God so you can be forgiven for your past sins and evil. Your first step is passing the brazen altar in the tabernacle because you need to be closer to God and the Holy Spirit. You want to sacrifice yourself for God and the Holy Spirit by passing the brazen altar in the tabernacle. You want to eliminate sin and evil around you in your family and household.

Ways to end Failure in your Household

1. Read the bible daily.
If you are not able to make it to church or get involved in a church, it is good to have bible study once or several times a week with your family. It will end division and evil in families and households. You and your family can talk about the bible together and understand the bible. It is a way to understand the bible and remain close to God during this pandemic.
2. Fasting.
You need to fast and stay away from flesh. You need to prove your worship and love for the Lord and Holy Spirit daily. You can try fasting for forty days and forty nights to prove your love for the Lord. Fasting is all about making sacrifices to the Lord because you need to sacrifice your mind, body and soul.
3. Educate yourself to the Bible.
You can better read and understand the bible daily by applying scriptures to your life on earth. It can better lead the path of righteousness to have the gift of eternal life in heaven.
4. Obey God's commandments.
Do not steal which means you need to ask people for things and possessions before stealing for them. You do not want to start evil and sin your living environment, household. Do not kill which means honor life on earth by staying away from gangs, idolatry, abortion clinics. Honor Adam and Eve as couples being man and woman with children. Do not bear false witness against others means do not gossip and worry about other people in your lives. Idols will tell you to condemn the Lord and not go to church, drop out of school, join and get involved in gangs, steal and kill, bear false witness against others.
5. Obey God's plan for you.

When you are young, you want to seek God and the Holy Spirit to prevent you from living a sinful life while growing up to teenager and adult. When you find your soul mate and what to mate, you need to find the soul mate you want to spend the rest of your life with on earth to eternal life in heaven.

- a. No sex or fornication before marriage
- b. No children before marriage. Children before marriage represent Satan and hell. The Godly thing to do is wait until you get married to have children. God's plan is the path of righteousness to eternal life in heaven.
- c. No same-sex marriage or abortion. If you do not want the child and were raped, you can give the child to foster home to give other Americans and families opportunity to adopt the child to take care of child as their own with love and support.
- d. Love your family and spouse until eternity. You want to prevent divorce and separation from your spouse and family. You want to stay in the household with your family to love and honor your children. You want to prevent incarceration for yourself because you do not want to spend time in prison and let children grow up without two parents in the household. You want to stay in the household with children to prevent child support and alimony. Divorce and separation from family is a sin and represents the Satan kingdom. You want to prevent representation of the Satan kingdom in your life on earth. Divorce is a sin and evil word for our society and households.

My mother and step-father need to work out problems they have in the household because they need to stop being distant from each other. My mother and step-father are supposed to love each other until eternity and die on earth. My sister lives in Texas and needs to stop being distant from several family members, such as honor and be thankful for family and what she has. Homeless people that do not have family to depend on will love to have families to go to and depend on. My mother, step-father and sister need to open communication to remain close to family during good and bad times. My mother says she prays, but does not live her life with obedience because she still lives her life in sin and path of unrighteousness. They need to repent and confess their sins are the key to being humble and asking for forgiveness from God. Congregation has 3,905 total members because the church gained 69 new members from the last series. Church already spent $3.06 for church operations and helping the homeless in Illinois.
