Ways to Remain or Gain Faithful to God by Eliminating Signs of Deception in Your Inner Circle Forever

- If you are having problems with addictions or living your life ungodly, the best thing to do is find programs like Star of Hope Rescue Mission in Houston that have Spiritual Recovery Program to help people live a spiritual life and avoid relapse.
- Pray for the wicked and haters while trying to remain distant from them by meeting new spiritual people. That's why living in shared room housing is a bad idea for many people because it is a trigger to cause people to relapse based on strangers being all about signs of deception, hate, envy, temptation, bear false witness against others, think they know it all about people. As ordained bishop, take my advice and move in with a spiritual friend or family member to avoid shared room housing living situations.
- Strengthen your prayer life by staying away from individuals that are judgmental. You need to pray to have more spiritual people that do not be judgmental in your inner circle.
- Stay away from people that think they know it all about others and all about bearing false witness against others on earth, household or community.
- Stay away from people continue to lie and tell lies
- Strengthen your prayer life to God kingdom to eliminate signs of deception about yourself and others to improve yourself for God kingdom.

Your Faith in God while Dealing with Signs of Deception in Your Inner Circle

- Read the bible and understand the bible daily while living at homeless shelter. It means when you are homeless at a shelter, find a spiritual staff member or loyal Christian at the homeless shelter to be your accountability partner and teacher to prevent you from relapsing. It happens when homeless men and women leave homeless shelters.
- Attend bible study at homeless shelter where you stay at to be a disciple
- Don't be afraid to find a church home while dealing with homelessness to strengthen your faith in God and the Holy Spirit.
- If you have problems with your family members, pray to God kingdom to reunite with your families. This will reduce tenants end up in shared room living conditions. Also, this will reduce the homeless populations at homeless shelters.
- Find a friend or family member that is spiritual and keep you reading the bible as well as knowing God word. For example, this is why you see people in me you see today because my strong knowledge and walk for God started with grandmother on biological father side of the family that strengthen my fellowship and faith in God. I am 100% follower of Lord Jesus Christ today.
