Homelessness Outreach in Baltimore

Bishop Nicolas Hobson visited three homeless shelters in Baltimore, such as Helping Up Mission, St. Vincent de Paul of Baltimore and Baltimore Station. Bishop Hobson allowed the congregation to keep organization contact information on record. He plans to travel back to Baltimore in September 2019 to meet and greet at the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) headquarters because he was not able to go to NAACP headquarters on June 29, 2019. Bishop Hobson visited and met with staff at a women homeless shelter in Baltimore while taking tour of the woman shelter. Women shelter staff and Bishop Hobson had a good dialogue with staff talking about the economic hardship of homeless people in this country. Bishop Hobson talked with staff at homeless shelters about church Homelessness Financial Relief Program and Emergency Assistance Program on how it can help homeless men and women in Baltimore. I visited and done a walk through of some bad neighborhoods in Baltimore with abandoned buildings and apartments. Abandoned buildings and apartments are located in small part of Baltimore.

Monthly donations this month in Maryland, Illinois, New York, Georgia and Texas help many homeless men and women with clothing and food. Monthly donations help fund homeless shelters to provide food and clothing to homeless shelters in United States of America.
