Matthew 11:28-30

People need to pray to the Lord and stop getting their possessions by the flesh. It means no hustling other people for money and other things. Homeless men and women hustle for cigarette and marijuana for transportation and food. Some people need their money in these tough times to pay bills, debt and strengthen their wealth for retirement. Black communities are not strengthening their wealth for good use. Black households need their money to pay and save for housing, food and household expenses. Young people need to quit smoking and buying cigarettes and marijuana. Homeless people need to stop smoking and treat their body as Temple to the Lord. People's money should be used for positive things and helping the poor. We should not be fighting each other by calling each other names. We need to stop calling each other bad names and racial slurs. We need to live in peace with others and ourselves. We must not be dream busters and try to have people tell us about ourselves and others.

Heavenly Father,

Let continue to be humble to the Lord

Give me strengthen daily to resist the devil

You are my God and rock of my salvation

Increase cheerful giver for poor and organizations

Lead the world to peace to end violence

Eliminating guilt, worries and denials from people

In Jesus name, Amen
