

Do not Hate, Appreciate

People under 30 and youth hate successful and sophisticated people around them. They act envious towards successful and sophisticated people. I believe God is testing people under 30 because they try to have it both ways, such as be and act like a fake Christian and live life by the flesh. That is 100% fact. I noticed it for many years> I have seen many people under 30 in fights with other generations in Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia getting the s knocked out of them. I witnessed the fights all the time in Chicago on buses and trains going home to the Southside of Chicago. I witnessed young African-American male surrendering easily because older generation African-American men in Chicago beat the S out of them. It is the reason why people under 30 lives feel like its running into a wall. That is 100% fact. People under 30 do not show anybody respect, appreciation and lack common sense. That is is 100% fact. People under 30 rather hate and be envious of successful and sophisticated people on earth. People under 30 lack discipline in the households because they was not raised how people over 30 were raised in the household with discipline to know right from wrong to adulthood. Young people under 30 talk good games and act all hard/tough about beating the s out of the someone, but they always the people that get s beat out by older generation men. That is 100% fact. People under 30 are reaping what they sow and what they deserve today.
